Glen Howard Sturtevant, Jr., Rawls Law Group (Richmond), Richmond, VA, for Petitioner.

Martin Conway Galvin, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On January 8, 2021, Andrea Scanlan filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration as the result of an influenza vaccination on September 8, 2020. Petition, ECF No. 1. On August 3, 2023, I issued a decision awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. ECF No. 41.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2018).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, requesting an award of $19,198.07 (representing $17,964.10 in attorney's fees and $1,233.97 in attorney's costs). Petitioner's Application for Attorney's Fees and Costs ("Motion") filed Aug. 16, 2023, ECF No. 45. In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. ECF No. 45-3.

Respondent reacted to the motion on Oct. 4, 2023, indicating that he defers resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Respondent's Response to Motion at 2-3, ECF No. 47. On Oct. 16, 2023, Petitioner indicated that she does not intend to file a substantive reply to Respondent's response. ECF No. 48.

The rates requested for work performed through 2023 are reasonable and consistent with prior determinations and will therefore be adopted. (And all time billed to the matter was also reasonably incurred). Furthermore, Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs. ECF No. 45-2. Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $19,198.07 (representing $17,964.10 in attorney's fees and $1,233.97 in attorney's costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Glen H. Sturtevant. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this Decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
